Win great prizes in our first-ever photo contest

Take an eye-catching image at China Camp, and it could win you a prize. From July 1 through August 15, submit your images to our inaugural Friends of China Camp Photo Contest.

Follow the steps below to submit your photos via Instagram. If you don't use Instagram and you still want to enter, send us your images (details below) and we'll post them on Instagram for you.

Once images go live on Instagram, we'll start tracking how many "likes" each image gets. The 10 images with the most "likes" by August 15 will then be judged by award-winning photographers (and Friends of China Camp trail ambassadors) Marilyn Bagshaw and Steven Ziman. They will select 1st-, 2nd-, and 3rd-place winners, plus 2 honorable mentions, for a total of 5 chances to win. (Prizes limited to one per photographer.)
