

2020 CAMPGROUND REGULATIONS

Effective June 2020

- If you or anyone in your party is exhibiting symptoms such as coughing, shortness of breath, or fever, please cancel your reservation through Reserve California.
- You are required to wear a mask at all times when using the common areas of the campground. This includes the pathways, parking lot, bathrooms, and water spigot areas. You do not need to wear a mask when you are in your own campsite.
- Please stay at least 6 ft away from other individuals that are not in your household at all times.
- For every vehicle associated with the reservation, please print out a copy of your Reserve California reservation confirmation and bring it with you to use in place of a vehicle tag. It should include the first and last name of the reservation holder, site number, date due in and date due out.
  - If a printer is unavailable, please hand write the above information on a piece of paper in large print and place it on your dashboard when in the park.

- No more than 8 people are allowed per campsite. If you have 2 or more campsites reserved, we ask that if visiting other sites that no more than 8 people occupy a site at a time.
- No temporary visitors are allowed in the campground. Everyone who enters the campground must be spending the night.
  - If you would like to visit with someone for the day, please leave the campground and visit with them in one of the park's day use areas such as the Village.
- We do not supply soap or hand sanitizer in the bathrooms. Please bring your own hand soap, hand sanitizer, and cleaning supplies with you.
  - It is also a good idea to bring something to put toiletries in while you're in the restroom to avoid putting them directly on surfaces.
- Optional: Bring a tablecloth to cover the picnic table as an additional sanitary layer.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the China Camp State Park Ranger Station at 415-456-0766 or email scoll@friendsofchinacamp.org
